REVENUE OFFICERS.

India, 13th March 1924.

DE. F. 565-21.—The following reprint of the rules relating to premature retirement on proportionate pension, which were made on the 15th January 1923, by the Secretary of State in Council, in virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 1(1) and (2) of the Government of India Act, in which certain verbal amendments were made, in the version of the rules published in the Gazette of India, dated the 15th January 1924, have been corrected, as published for general information.

3. The rules are in the main a reproduction, in the form of Standing rules of existing orders. Apart from amplifications and clarifications, the only changes of substance made in those orders are the following:

(a) It has been made plain that the rules apply to members of the services specified, however and wherever they were appointed, but that previous service in a provincial or subordinate service cannot be counted for proportionate pension by officers promoted from such service to an all-India service. (Second Schedule, paragraph 1).

(b) Proportionate gratuity is made allowable to officers who retired as the result of an application submitted while they were on leave out of India, if that leave commenced before the date of the issue of these rules. After that date proportionate gratuity was originally intended to be allowable only to an officer whose application is submitted while he is on duty in India. [Rule 9 (2)].

(c) Provision has been made for the refund by instalments of gratuity payable post to officers who are temporarily prevented to return to duty. [Rule 12 (4)].

(d) Conditions have been prescribed under which acceptance of further employment under the Crown may render inoperative or reduce the proportionate pension. [Rule 9].

(e) The arrangements allowable in respect of family pension of officers of the Indian Army in civil employ have been prescribed. [Rule 13].

PREMATURE RETIREMENT ON PROPORTIONATE PENSION

[Rules under section 94-B (2) and (3), Government of India Act.]

1. (1) These rules may be called the Premature Retirement Rules.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force in respect of officers serving elsewhere than in Burma on the 15th November 1921, and in respect of officers serving in Burma on the 15th January 1922.

3. Any officer whose service is a member of one of the services specified in the First Schedule mentioned before the 1st January 1923, and who is not permanently employed locally under the Government-General in Council, may be permitted by the Secretary of State in Council to retire under these rules:

Provided that an officer of the Indian Army in civil employ who has not been placed on the superannuation list, and an officer of the Indian Medical Service who has completed twelve (12 years' total service, shall be eligible to retire under these rules unless the competent military authorities are unable or unwilling to accept in military employment.

4. (1) Every application for such pension shall be addressed in the first instance to the Local Government under which the officer is employed, and shall be accompanied by the following documents, which shall be signed by the applicant:—

(a) In view of the changes in the conditions of my service commenced by the Government of India Act, 1919, I desire to retire on the terms set forth in the rules relating to premature retirement.

(2) An application under this rule may be submitted by an officer while he is on leave out of India, and in that case, before the Local Government considers his return to duty necessary before his application can be considered, the rules shall apply to him in the same manner as if his application had been submitted while on duty.

Provided that an officer who has made an application under this rule while he is on leave out of India and whose application is sanctioned by the Secretary of State in Council before he leaves the service shall not, unless he have commenced before the 15th January 1923, be eligible for the gratuity provided in Rule 11, except to the extent allowable under sub-rule (b) of that rule.

5. On receipt of an application the Local Government shall forward it with their recommendations to the Government-General in Council, who shall transmit it with his recommendations to the Secretary of State in Council for action.

6. An officer who has been permitted by the Secretary of State in Council to retire under these rules, or whose application has been forwarded by the Local Government to the Governor-General in Council with a recommendation that his retirement be sanctioned, shall, unless the Local Government may choose in the interim, be permitted to avail himself, in anticipation of his retirement, of the full amount of leave which is due to him and which may be granted to him at one time (otherwise than on medical certificate) under the regulations for the time being in force and applicable to him.

Provided that if the Local Government considers that leave on anticipation of retirement should not be granted, or that less than the full amount of leave available under regulations for the time being in force should be granted, the proposal to withhold or reduce the leave applied for shall be submitted with the reasons therefor for the orders of the Secretary of State in Council.

6. (1) The Local Government shall have discretion to fix the date on which leave granted under rule 6 shall commence.

Provided that an officer who has been granted by the Secretary of State in Council permission to retire under these rules shall not be detained in India beyond the date on which he desires to leave unless his detention cannot be avoided without prejudice to the public interest.

(2) If the Local Government considers that suitable arrangements ought to be made for the relief of any officer at the date on which he desires to proceed on leave proportionally in retirement under these rules, it may, when forwarding his application to the Governor-General in Council, recommend that the Secretary of State in Council should postpone the grant of permission and in that case shall specify the period during which such postponement should extend.

7. An officer who has submitted an application for permission to retire under these rules, and has been granted leave under Rule 6, shall not be at liberty to amend his application and to retire to duty without the sanction of the Local Government under which he was employed.

8. (1) An officer who has submitted an application for permission to retire under these rules may be permitted to take up other employment during the currency of his leave proportionally in retirement.

(2) Such permission may be granted by the Governor-General in Council if the proposed employment lies elsewhere than in India, and by the Secretary of State in Council if the proposed employment lies elsewhere than in India.

Provided that an officer who has been granted permission to take up employment under this rule shall be precluded, save with the specific sanction of the Secretary of State in Council, from withdrawing his request for permission to retire and from returning to duty in India.

(3) The Secretary of State in Council and the Governor-General in Council, in the case may be, may reserve to themselves the right to withhold permission to take up employment under this rule in cases where the employment appears to them to be such as would not well properly be held by a person who is still in the service of the Crown in India; or, alternatively, to grant the desired permission in any such case subject to such conditions or restrictions as they may think necessary.

8. (1) The right of any officer to retire or retain a pension under the provisions of these rules is subject to the right of the Secretary of State in Council—

(a) to refuse or withhold any pension, if the post service of the applicant is not approved, and if the pension after retirement is considered of various value or in gross of gross mismanagement, and

(b) in cases where an officer obtains, prior to, or within two years from, the date of his retirement under these rules, other employment under the Crown, or of the proportionate pension admissible under these rules.

(2) In cases where a proportionate pension is suspended wholly or in part under clause (b) of the preceding sub-rule, the service of the officer shall be terminated in the authority under which he is to be employed, on the understanding that on the termination of his employment under the Crown he shall have the option of receiving either (i) a pension in respect of his total service calculated under the rules made by the Treasury under section 7 (1), Supersession Act, 1908, or (ii) a proportionate pension under these rules in respect of his Indian service together with such sum, in respect of his service under local authority.

Provided that if the department employing the officer does not consent to a pension calculated under the said Treasury Rules, or if the said Treasury Rules are inapplicable, the service of the officer shall be terminated on the understanding stated in the second alternative in the preceding paragraph.

(3) For the purpose of this rule, the expression "employment under the Crown" shall be deemed to include employment under the Government of Crown Colonies, Protectorates, and territories granted to the British Government, but does not include employment under the Government of a self-governing Dominion or State in India, or under a Local Authority.

(4) A proportionate pension shall not be liable to suspension either wholly or in part under sub-rule (1) of this rule unless the proportionate pension, when combined with the total pay of the officer in his new appointment, would exceed the total pay which he might have received under rule 91 of the Fundamental Rules if his new employment had been on deputation from India.

10. Subject to the provisions of rule 8, an officer who is granted by the Secretary of State in Council permission to retire under these rules shall be entitled, if he has completed less than three years' total service, to a gratuity equal to one month's pay for the rate drawn by the applicant while last on duty before his retirement, multiplied by the number of completed months of total service at the officer's ex-ante and divided by 12, and converted at the rate of 15 p. per rupee; and, if he has completed five years' total service, to a pension of the amount shown in the Second Schedule.

11. (1) In addition to the pension or gratuity referred to in rule 10, any officer who has been permitted to retire under these rules (other than an officer who is entitled to the pension specified in the Second Schedule as the maximum pension admissible under these rules to the service in which he belongs, and when more than one method of calculating a pension is permissible, for the method of calculating the pension actually adopted) and who proceeds on retirement or on leave proportionally in retirement to some part of the United Kingdom (intending to settle there permanently), shall, subject to the provisions of Rule 2 (3), be entitled to receive a gratuity equal to the cost of first class fares and passages from the last place of his employment in India to his destination for himself, and for his wife and children if they were in India at the time of his proceeding on leave pending to retirement.

(2) For purposes of payment of this gratuity to officers proceeding to or via the United Kingdom, first class fares and passages, in the case of officers not employed in India, including Burma, shall be freightable about or railway fares to Bombay plus cost of first class passage to it twice by the P. and O. Steam Navigation Company to London (all sea routes), and in the case of officers not employed in Burma, first class railway or steamer fares to Harrogate plus cost of first class passage by the Ely Line to London (all sea routes); and, in both cases, railway fares from London to destination. These rates are payable irrespective of the fares or rates by which an officer or his family travel.

(3) Payment of the gratuity (including that portion representing railway fares from London, which shall be paid by the High Commissioner) shall be made by the Local Government concerned before the officer leaves India.

(4) A Local Government may at its discretion sanction the payment of a gratuity calculated as in sub-rules (1) and (2) of this rule, but excluding the fares and passages of the officer himself, in the case of officers who are obliged by domestic or religious reasons to leave India before the date of their retirement, or in advance of the officer being subsequent to the submission of his application to retire.

(5) An officer who applies in India for permission to retire and who is appointed to leave India in anticipation of the accession of the Secretary of State in Council is eligible for the gratuity. In such cases, if the officer proceeds to the United Kingdom, the Local Government shall authorize the High Commissioner to make payment.

(6) Officers who apply to retire while on leave in England, and whose families are in India at the time when their retirement was sanctioned by the Secretary of State in Council, shall receive a portion of the gratuity equal to the cost of first-class railway fares and passages for their families when the latter leave India.

(7) It is not to be a gratuity or any portion thereof be payable until the Secretary of State in Council has sanctioned the officer's retirement under these rules.

(8) The gratuity shall be an office order for the full amount, in the event of his being permitted to retire in duly due time, be refunded. Such refunds may be made by deductions of an equal monthly instalment from the officer's pay-Bill, commencing with the first pay-bill drawn after return.

22. (1) A member of the Indian Civil Service who retires under these rules may adopt at his option any one of the three following methods of obtaining for his wife and children benefit attributable under the Indian Civil Service Family Pension Regulations, namely—

(a) He may elect to make any contributions and payments under the regulations, and shall then retain only the right to a proportion of the contingent benefits under the regulations for his wife and children existing on the date of retirement, and for any children subsequently born to them; and this proportion shall be equal to the number of his accumulated years' total service divided by 25, and the calculation shall be based upon the pension attributable to the widow of an officer of the class to which he belonged at the time of his retirement.

(b) He may continue up to his 50th birthday to make contributions under the regulations at the rates payable by former the date of retirement, and shall then retain the right to the full contingent benefits attributable under the regulations according to his class on the date of his retirement for his wife existing at the date of retirement, and for any children born to him, whether born before or after retirement. Under the alternative contributions will be payable under the ordinary regulations for such child, whether born before or after retirement. In the event of the death of his wife, contributions at the benefits rate appropriate to the subscriber's class at retirement will be payable until age 51.

(c) He may continue up to his 50th birthday to make contributions and payments under the regulations at the rates which would have been payable by him from time to time had he remained in the service. In that case he shall retain the full benefits attributable under the regulations at 51 he had remained in the service until death or retirement with an ordinary pension.

(2) The Secretary of State in Council shall make good to the Indian Civil Service Family Pension Fund orders of similar provisions any loss which may be sustained to be thrown upon it by the operation of this rule.

23. (1) An officer of the Indian Army or of the Indian Medical Service who retires under these rules may elect any one of the three following options with regard to his subscriptions under the Indian Military Service Family Pension Regulations or to the Indian Military Widows' and Orphans' Fund—

(a) He may continue to subscribe at the half rate of subscription under article 18 of the Indian Military Service Family Pension Regulations or article 12 of the Indian Military Widows' and Orphans' Fund, or if a married subscriber under the Indian Military Service Family Pension Regulations, he may withdraw, receiving the refund authorized by article 22. If he continues to subscribe, he will retain the same rights to contingent benefits from the funds as if he had retired under the ordinary rules.

(b) He may elect to make any payments under the regulation except in so far as is provided by the last sentence of this clause, and shall then retain the right to contingent benefits at the rates attributable under the regulations to the widow and children of an officer of the class to which he belonged at the date of retirement, but his wife and children, existing at the date, and for any children subsequently born to them. Under this alternative, any deduction payable under the ordinary rules for any child born after retirement shall, however, be paid by the officer if he desires to retain any right to continuance of benefits for any such child.

(c) He may continue up to his 50th birthday to make payments under the regulations at the full rates applicable to the class which he would have retained had he remained in the service until that date, and thereafter at half rates according to the class to which he is then entitling. Any contingent benefits due after age 51 will be payable in full in the case of ordinary widows. His wife and children will in this case be eligible for the full benefits appropriate to the class to which he is subscribing at the date of death.

20. The stipendium shall be payable in India if the communication is effected there; in all other cases it shall be payable in England. When communication of a sterling pension is effected in India by means involving temporarily its transmission to that country, the communication shall be on the basis of the current rates of exchange, the rate adopted being the rate of exchange for telegraphic transfers from Calcutta on London on the 10th of the month preceding that in which the stipendium was paid.

21. The communication of the proportionate pension of an officer who draws his pension directly or indirectly from Indian revenues shall be governed by the rules contained in the Third Schedule.

3. The balance of the commutation payment shall be all moneys below that of the pension, and the commuted amount shall be made payable at the Treasury at which the pension is being or is to be drawn. 4. Application for commutation shall be made in Form A appended to these rules.

5. (a) If on consideration of the facts stated in the application the Local Government decides to allow commutation, the applicant shall be required to produce a certificate as to the expectation of life, from a medical officer of standing not lower than that of a Civil Surgeon, District Medical Officer or Presidency Surgeon. The Local Government may further, at its discretion, require a second medical opinion or direct the applicant to appear before a Medical Board.

(b) The certifying Surgeon or Board shall certify the applicant to a valid medical examination, paying due regard to general information as to his health and habits as is usual in the case of pensioners proposing to secure their lives in commuted payments, and shall report in the following form:—

6. The lump sum payable on commutation shall be the amount certified by the Audit Officer to be admissible according to the table of present values appended to this schedule. This amount may be deducted, at the discretion of the Local Government, in the approach for definite acceptance or rejection, within a specified period before final sanction to commutation, issues.

7. Commutation, when sanctioned, shall take effect from a date, to be named in the order, which shall ordinarily be not more than the date of the order, and all calculations shall be made with reference to that date. Payment of the commuted portion of the pension will cease from the date specified and the sum payable on commutation will be paid on that date or as soon after as is possible.

8. A commutation once applied for, sanctioned and given effect to, shall not be annulled, that is to say, the portion of a pension commuted shall not be resumed on refund of its capitalised value.

9. If a pensioner whose pension has been commuted dies on or after the date from which the commutation is to take effect under rule 8, but before he receives the commutation value, this value shall be paid to his heirs.

10. In the case of a pensioner who is employed in Government service or in the service of a Local Fund, and who commutes a portion of his pension before or after such employment, the amount which the pensioner is entitled to draw under the rules in Chapter XXI of the Civil Service Regulations shall be the amount to which he would have been entitled under those rules had there been no commutation, less the amount commuted.

No. 33.—The following Circular letter is published:—

From J. F. MORRISON, Esq., I.C.S., Assistant-Secretary, Madras, to all Treasury officers, and all following offices, dated Port St. George, the 5th March 1924, No. T.M. 33-55-8097.

[Subject.—Procedure to be followed in regard to the deduction of Income-tax from the salaries of Government employees.]

I have the honour to state that under section 34 (2) of the Income-tax Act (vide Appendix No. 2 to the Civil Account Code, Volume I, inserted by notification slip No. 147, dated the 1st April 1923), the responsibility for deducting the tax lies on the paying officer at the time of payment and that the Assistant-Secretary in India has issued the following instructions in the matter of deduction of Income-tax from the salaries of Government employees:

3. Attention is invited to the instructions in paragraph 34 of the 'Notes and Instructions regarding the Income-Tax Law and Rules' on pages 33 and 34 of the Income-tax Manual. Agents who to these instructions, such as a salary bill is prepared, it is necessary to ascertain what an officer's total income up to date is and at what rate the tax has been deducted, and to consider what his total income for the year is likely to amount to by the end of the year and what is the rate of tax appropriate to such total income. When an officer is transferred, the total salary drawn up to date and the total amount of income-tax deducted should be noted in his last pay certificate. When an officer receives from a higher rate of salary to a lower rate, or when, for example, an assistant of the station of an officer as there is. In regard to the rate of tax applicable to the total salary likely to be drawn by him in India during the whole income-tax year, there must be deducted at the rate appropriate to the probable total annual income. Having regard to the total drawn up to date and the rate at which salary is likely to be drawn for the rest of the year. Any excess deduction in previous months due to the fact in rate should also be adjusted in the last pay bill in which tax is deducted at the lower rate. Similarly if an officer is promoted to a higher salary and the result is that the rate appropriate to his probable total income is increased, not only should tax at the higher rate be deducted in subsequent pay bills but any deficiency in previous deductions due to the fact in rate should also be made good in the last pay bill drawn after his promotion. Any necessary final adjustments may be made in the last month of the year.

3. I would request that the above instructions may be carefully noted by the Treasury officers and other Departmental officers who pay the pay bills of gazetted officers and by heads of offices who are responsible for the payment of non-gazetted establishment. The procedure laid down above should be given effect to from the pay bills for March 1924 payable in April 1924.

R. W. DAVIES,
Secretary to Government.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to amend the Tariff Act, 1904, for certain purposes was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 26th February 1904:—

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to amend the Indian Tariff Act, 1904, for certain purposes was referred, have considered the Bill and have now the honour to submit this our Report.

2. The main object of the Bill is to enable the Government of India to levy customs-duties on any articles imported or exported, as the case may be, by land from or to any territory which is neither a foreign European settlement in India nor an Indian State. This power, which we agree that it is necessary for the Government to have, does not exist under the Indian Tariff Act, 1904, as it stands at present.

At the same time, the power which the Local Governments of Madras and Bombay at present possess under sub-section (2) of section 2 of the Act, to impose duties on custom-duty goods passing by land into and out of particular Indian States bordering on those provinces is transferred to the Government of India as a necessary result of the centralisation of customs administration.

The Bill reserves to the Government of India the power which they have at present under the Act in regard to Indian States not contiguous with Madras or Bombay.

Finally, section 2, as it stands at present, imposes a statutory obligation upon the Government of India to levy land customs-duties on goods passing by land out of or into every European foreign settlement in India provided that the goods are chargeable to any custom-duty when passing

2. At the present time, in view of the provisions of section 44 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1904, the decrees of certain Courts of Revenue Courts in Indian States which are notified by the Governor-General in Council may be executed in British India, and it has been considered advisable that the proposed legislation proposed by the Bill should follow, as closely as possible, the provisions of that section.

3. The Bill provides that decrees of His Majesty's High Court of Justice in England or in Northern Ireland or of the Court of Session in Scotland shall be capable of being executed in British India when certified copies of them have been filed in a District Court. Decrees of Courts established in other parts of His Majesty's Dominions will not be capable of execution in this manner until a notification has been issued by the Governor-General in Council, and such notification would not be issued until approved legislation has been passed which would enable the decrees of superior Courts in India to be executed there. In sub-section (7) of clause 2 of the Bill it is provided that the Act shall come into force on a date to be appointed by the Governor-General in Council. It is proposed to bring the Bill, if enacted, into force when the provisions of Part II of the English Act have been extended to British India by His Majesty by Order in Council.

DRAFT,
The 24th February 1924

H. MOSCIEFF SMITH.

H. MOMCHIEFF SMITH.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 25th February 1901:—

No. 11 of 1901.

A Bill to amend the Indian Registration Act, 1899.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Registration Act, 1899, so as to enable some Sub-Registrars to exercise and perform the powers and duties of a Registrar who did so originally in exercise of the powers of a Registrar; and whereas it is hereby enacted as follows:—

Section 1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Registration (Amendment) Act, 1901.

(2) It shall come into force on the first day of January 1902.

Section 2. To section 7 of the Indian Registration Act, 1899, the following subsection shall be added, namely:—

"(3) The Local Government may by notification designate any Sub-Registrar to be a Registrar within the meaning of the proviso to section 16, and all provisions contained in sections 14 to 27 which apply to Registrars appointed for registration to a Registrar shall also apply to such persons appointed for registration to such Sub-Registrars."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In some of the previous Sub-Registrars are highly educated gentlemen. There is no reason why, if someone of a domestic or inferior nature, they should not hold an inquiry as to execution, etc., and why the public should be under the necessity of taking a formal notice of execution and then going to the Registrar to get the inquiry held.

The Bill is intended to enable Local Government to allow Sub-Registrars to hold the necessary inquiry themselves.

Dated;
The 25th January 1901.

T. HANNAHART.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 26th February 1901:—

No. 12 of 1901.

A Bill to define the liability of a Hindu Opressor.

WHEREAS certain laws relating to the liability of a Hindu oppressor, subject to the Hindu law, for the debts incurred by the oppressor for family necessities, are also in regard to the same law of the father; and whereas it is expedient to define his liability; it is hereby enacted as follows:—

Section 1. (1) This Act may be called the Hindu Oppressor's Liability Act, 1901.

(2) It shall come into force on the day of

It is hoped that the measure, if passed into law, will not only quell the doubts which the Courts have felt on the position of widowers but will in the administration of Hindu Law, in which others dealing with members of a joint family feel equally uncertain, and who have a right to expect from the Legislature a clear enunciation of their rights and liabilities which cannot be left to the chance of litigation. The Government are cognizant of the value of shortening litigation. The Bill, if passed, will serve that purpose.

The rules as drawn have been appended verbatim and justify them on the strength of cases cited therein.

Report,
The 21st December 1912

H. S. GOUD.

RULES ON CHASTITY.

Chaste Wife's Debt has nowhere been defined in the Hindu Law. The question whether it includes a pecuniary liability arising from a breach of civil duty has been answered in the affirmative by the Calcutta High Court (21 C. 312; 22 C. 301).
"Discontinued Debt"—The definition coincides with the cases decided before Lord Han's case (39 A. 317 P. C.) and is in accordance with the decision of the Full Bench in 45 M. 714 (1911) Vol. 108. It overrules Saba Ramu, (134 P. C.) as far as it is understood to lay down the contrary and the cases which so understood it.

Chaste Wife—This is in accordance with the following cases:—
 3 M. L. A. 195; 12 M. 108 P. C. The position of the father as such is independent of his status as manager, see 15 D. 51; 45 C. 345; 35 P. 284; 42 M. 711.

Chaste Wife—This is the effect of 3 B. 228, 229, 236, 244; 49 C. 513. The son's place of litigation arises independently of the father's death—31 M. 18 P. 15 which is in accordance with Hindu Law. The contrary laid down by the Privy Council in 33 A. 317 is overruled.

Chaste Wife—These are excepted from my Hindu Code (ss. 125-127), where numerous authorities will be found cited in support of them.
